

Florencio Briones serves as Senior Field Deputy in the office of Los Angeles County Supervisor Hilda Solis. He has been the office's primary contact for LGBTQ advocacy while also working on a broader range of issues. Florencio is committed to public service and can often be found registering voters at community events. He also serves as a Trustee at El Monte Union High School. Florencio's work reminds us all that communities matter and individuals can make a difference.